363 for Leaders Workshop

This training program allows for leaders within an organization to receive buy-in from senior leadership, and receive a fully customizable 360-degree feedback and coaching offering that meets their specific leadership development needs. Participants taking this course will recognize the tendencies that shape their approach to leadership, based on their DiSC style, understand how others see them as a leader and how their own self-ratings compare, identify which of the Eight Approaches to Effective Leadership—and the three behavioral Practices underlying each approach—are their strengths and which ones would benefit from further development, and lastly, learn three personalized strategies for becoming a more effective leader based on specific rater feedback.
